

ETHON DISQUALIFIED

Jockey's Rough Riding at Pimlico Loses Race.

FAVORITES HEAVILY PLAYED

Bersl, the first choice, captures the Mount Washington Steeplechase—Black Bridge goes to the post neglected—Takahira furnished the most thrilling finish.

Baltimore, April 27.—Players of short-lived horses had their innings at Pimlico today. It was a day when the horses ran to form, and with the exception of the disqualification of Ethon, the favorite in the Renner Handicap, and the unsuiting of Henderson on the first choice in the steeplechase, the spectators had no complaint whatever coming to them, as in the two instances heavily played performers carried off the big share of the division of the money.

The Renner Handicap was the feature, but only three horses faced the starter. Ethon won it, pulled up, by three lengths, only to have the race taken away because of his rider's rough work.

The most popular victory of the day was that of the Pimlico favorite, Bersl, in the Mount Washington Steeplechase. While Black Bridge was installed the favorite in the ring, he went to the post neglected.

Mount Is Thrown.

Black Bridge sent Henderson sprawling to the ground in the final jump, and then it was Bersl's race. Haynes did not rush things with Bersl. He saved the old brown mare for the last turn of the field, and afterward had no trouble in holding her for the winning effort.

Takahira and Starbottle furnished the most thrilling finish of the sport in the second race. Takahira was a popular choice, while Starbottle had some following. Starbottle should have won.

KETCHELLGETS DRAW

Stands Off Langford for Six Fast Rounds.

NO KNOCKDOWNS RECORDED

Philadelphia Fans See First Meeting of Heavy-hitting Welterweights—Negro Is Favorite and White Man Surprises Friends by His Clever Work in Ring.

Philadelphia, April 27.—Stanley Ketchell and Sam Langford will have to fight again to settle the question of pugilistic supremacy. They met in a hard six-round bout at the National Athletic Club in this city to-night and were both on their feet, able to continue, with plenty of strength and aggressiveness, when the battle ended with no decision by the referee. No knockdowns were scored in spite of the terrific hitting power of both men, and while there seems to be no doubt that they tried to do their best, they will probably come together in a longer fight in California next July for a $30,000 purse.

Langford showed a superior knowledge of boxing and scientific fighting, and in the fourth round his clean left-hand jab drew the blood from Ketchell's nose. He also had the white man a trifle tired when this round ended, but in the fifth Ketchell began to do some terrific punching and overcame the score.

All through the fight the
